2. BASIS OF CONTRACT AND OFFER

2.1 The Purchase Order constitutes an offer by the Buyer to purchase Products and/or Services from the Supplier in accordance with these Conditions.

2.2 The Purchase Order will be deemed to be accepted by the Supplier on the earlier of:

(a) the Supplier issuing written acceptance of the Purchase Order; or (b) any act by the Supplier consistent with fulfilling the Purchase Order, at which point, and on which date the Contract will come into existence (Commencement Date).

2.4 In the event of any conflict:

(a) between the information on the face of the Purchase Order, these Conditions and any attachments to the Purchase Order, the information on the face of the Purchase Order will prevail; and (b) the terms of any MA will prevail over all other terms. For the avoidance of doubt, any reference by the Buyer to the Supplier's quote will be for information purposes only and will not be construed as acceptance of the Supplier's own terms.

3. QUALITY, WARRANTIES AND INSPECTION

3.1 The Supplier warrants that:

(a) the Products and/or Services correspond with their description and any applicable Specification; (b) the Products are of satisfactory quality and conform to the quality expected by Buyer, based on information previously delivered by Supplier (within the meaning of the Applicable Laws) and fit for any purpose held out by the Supplier or made known to the Supplier by the Buyer, expressly or by implication, and in this respect the Buyer relies on the Supplier's skill and judgment; (c) the Products, where applicable, are free from defects in design, materials and workmanship and shall be subject to a contractual warranty of at least 12 months after delivery; and (d) the Products and/or Services comply with all applicable statutory and regulatory requirements relating to them.

3.3 The Supplier assigns and warrants that it has the authority to assign to the Buyer all manufacturer's warranties, express or implied, representations, service agreements and other indemnities, if any, applicable to all Products and/or Services sold to the Buyer by the Supplier.

3.4 The Buyer will have the right to inspect and test the Products at any time before delivery, including (but not restricted to) undertaking quality surveys and audits. The Supplier (whether directly or through a duly appointed sub-supplier) will, without additional charge to the Buyer, provide all reasonable facilities and assistance required for safe and convenient inspections by the Buyer. The Buyer will not unduly delay any of the Supplier's work while conducting inspections.

3.5 The Buyer will not be liable for any reduction in value of samples used in connection with any inspections nor will any rejected Products be delivered to the Buyer.

3.6 If following such inspection or testing the Buyer considers that the Products do not conform or are unlikely to comply with the Supplier's warranties at clause 3.1, the Buyer will inform the Supplier and the Supplier will immediately take such remedial action as is necessary to ensure compliance.

3.7 Notwithstanding any inspection or testing by the Buyer, the Supplier will remain fully responsible for the Products and any inspection or testing by the Buyer will not reduce or otherwise affect the Supplier's obligations under the Contract. The Buyer will have the right to conduct further inspections and tests after the Supplier has carried out its remedial actions. For the avoidance of doubt, the Buyer's inspection, or lack of inspection, will neither relieve the Supplier of responsibility for Products that do not comply with these Conditions, imply approval or acceptance of the Products by the Buyer or waive the Supplier's liability for latent defects, fraud, mistake or breach of warranty.

4. SUPPLIER PERSONNEL

4.1 The Buyer's assignments for which Supplier personnel provide Services will remain under the supervision and control of the Buyer. If a replacement of any member of Supplier personnel providing Services is requested by Buyer, the Supplier will immediately replace the identified personnel at no cost to the Buyer. Where it is agreed that the Products are delivered in instalments, the Products may be invoiced and paid for separately. However, failure by the Supplier to deliver any one instalment on time or at all or any defect in an instalment will entitle the Buyer to the remedies set out in clause 7.1.

5.6 Title and risk in the Products will pass to the Buyer on completion of delivery (as defined by reference to the applicable Incoterm which shall be mentioned in the relevant Purchase Order or, failing this, by article 5.8 hereunder) at the final destination specified by Buyer and upon inspection and acceptance of the Products by the Buyer.

7.2 If the Supplier is in breach of the Contract, then, without limiting its other rights or remedies, the Buyer will have one or more of the following rights (and, in the case of Products, whether or not it has accepted the Products): (a) to reject the Products (in whole or in part) whether or not title has passed and to return them to the Supplier at the Supplier's own risk and cost; (b) to terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Supplier; (c) to cancel the Purchase Order in whole or in part at the Supplier's own risk and cost; (d) to require the Supplier to repair or replace rejected Products at the Supplier's own risk and cost (the cost of any such repair or replacement to be based upon the Buyer's then current hourly rate for comparable work), or to provide a full refund of the price of the rejected Products (if paid); (e) to refuse to accept any subsequent delivery of the Products which the Supplier attempts to make; (f) to recover from the Supplier any costs incurred by the Buyer in obtaining substitute products from a third party; and (g) to claim damages for any additional costs, loss or expenses incurred by the Buyer arising from the Supplier's breach of the Contract.

7.3 Notwithstanding clause 7.2, the Buyer may cancel the Purchase Order in whole or in part at any time having provided prior written notice of cancellation to the Supplier. Such cancellation will be without liability to the Buyer except the Buyer will pay the Supplier for the cost of any work in progress and for any material commitments made within the time period specified on the face of the Purchase Order or, if no time period is specified, within the two-week period from the date of the notice of cancellation. For the avoidance of doubt, the amount of any work in progress and material commitments must be verified and confirmed by the Supplier in writing.

Any price differences resulting from these changes will be adjusted by the Buyer and, notwithstanding this, the Supplier will proceed with its performance of the terms of the Contract.

9.4 The Supplier will invoice the Buyer on delivery or immediately after completion of the services. Each invoice will include supporting information required by the Buyer to verify the accuracy of the invoice, including but not limited to the relevant Purchase Order number and must reflect the prices stated in the Purchase Order. In carrying out its responsibilities under this Agreement, the Supplier shall not pay, offer or promise to pay, or authorize the payment directly or indirectly of any monies or anything of value to any government official or employee or any political party or candidate for political office, for the purpose of inducing or rewarding any favourable action in any commercial transaction or in any governmental matter, and it has and will maintain and enforce its own company policy requiring adherence to ethical business practices, including a prohibition on bribery of government officials. 17.5 Waiver and cumulative remedies:

(a) A waiver of any right under the Contract is only effective if it is in writing and will not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. No failure or delay by a party in exercising any right or remedy under the Contract or by Applicable Laws will constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor preclude or restrict its further exercise. No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy will preclude or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. (b) Unless specifically provided otherwise, rights arising under the Contract are cumulative and do not exclude rights provided by Applicable Laws.

The Supplier will hold the Buyer harmless from and promptly satisfy any and all such liens and claims resulting therefrom.

17.11 Health and Safety: The Supplier will, at all times, remain under a duty to ensure that the Products do not present a health and safety risk when properly used and agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Buyer in respect of all claims arising in connection with the breach of this duty.
